

If anything the no-call list should be strengthened. I have been on the list for over a year and I still get nuisance calls. Do not make it easier for organizations to get our private numbers, make it harder.